Do not doubt the Prophet.

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Tuesday Evenings

Spend the whole hour or as much time as you can give!

The Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center is hosting a new art exhibition, Do This In Memory of Me.

The show features more than 100 items and has received support from the National Eucharistic Revival.

Admission and parking are free. The Center is located at: 1 State St. in New Haven and is open Wednesdays through Sundays from 10 AM to 4 PM.

More at: michaelmcgivneycenter.org.

By assisting devoutly at Mass, we render the sacred humanity of Our Lord the greatest homage. He makes up for many failings and omissions. We should pray like this at the beginning of Mass: “O Most just God, with contrite heart and steadfast hope, I lay my sins upon this sacred altar, in order that they may be consumed by the flames of Your divine Charity, purged away by the Precious Blood of Jesus, and fully atoned for by His infinite merits. Amen.”

ANNUNCIATION PARISH

The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B readings show us how God works through human weakness and the importance of faith. These themes help us understand how God empowers us and calls us to trust in Him.

- God's Empowerment of Prophets: God empowers Ezekiel to speak to the rebellious people of Israel. This shows that God will make His presence known even if people do not listen.
- Strength in Weakness: Paul talks about how his weaknesses are opportunities for Christ's power to shine. This teaches us that God's strength is perfected in our weaknesses.
- Rejection by Own People: Jesus is rejected by the people in Nazareth because of His humble background. This shows how lack of faith can limit what God can do in our lives.
- Faith and Healing: Jesus is only able to heal a few sick people in Nazareth because of their unbelief. This highlights the importance of having faith in God's power to heal and help us.
- Recognition of Prophets: God tells Ezekiel that the people will know a prophet has been among them whether they listen or not. This emphasizes the importance of recognizing and listening to those God sends to us.

The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us to trust in God's power, even in our weaknesses. It calls us to have faith and recognize God's messengers in our lives.

In case you missed the "Called by Name Weekend" where parishioners named a person that they saw positive qualities that would make a good religious sister or priest, here is the submission card for your use, or scan the QR code for electronic submission.

CALLED BY NAME

Thank you so much for nominating a person whom you think Jesus might be calling to be a priest, deacon, or religious sister. Those you nominate will receive a letter from the Archbishop, congratulating them on living the Christian life in an exemplary way and gently inviting them to begin formally discerning their calling, as well as much helpful information and resources. 100 Years of the Catholic Church in Newington!

September 2024, will mark 100 years from the time that the Catholic Church officially came to Newington from our sister parish, St. Bridget's in Elmwood. To mark this milestone Archbishop Coyne will be the celebrant at the vigil Mass on September 28, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. The vigil Mass that day will be celebrated at St. Mary Church and not at Holy Spirit as this will give the Archbishop an opportunity to see St. Mary's which he has not yet been able to visit.

To further celebrate, there will be a dinner following Mass and more details will be forthcoming. In an effort to truly celebrate and learn of our past, parishioners are asked to loan the event committee memorabilia that may show the original two wooden churches from the Willard Ave. site or other interesting items that show the progress of the Catholic Church in Newington.

Please mark your calendars and plan to come out and celebrate all the good that 100 years of our Church in Newington!
