By assisting devoutly at Mass, we render the sacred humanity of Our Lord the greatest homage. He makes up for many failings and omissions. We should pray like this at the beginning of Mass: “O Most just God, with contrite heart and steadfast hope, I lay my sins upon this sacred altar, in order that they may be consumed by the flames of Your divine Charity, purged away by the Precious Blood of Jesus, and fully atoned for by His infinite merits. Amen.”

In Loving Memory

We pray for...

Michael Rubbo

And for the consolation of their family & friends. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; let your light shine upon them.

On the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings show God's power and love. They remind us to trust in Him and live as new creations in Christ.

- God's Power Over Creation: God sets boundaries for the sea and controls its limits. This shows His power and authority over all creation.
- Trust in God's Control: In the Gospel, Jesus calms the storm. He asks the disciples why they are afraid, reminding us to trust in God's control over our lives.
- Christ's Love Changes Us: Paul's letter says Christ's love leads us to live for Him. In Christ, we become new creations, leaving our old selves behind.
- New Life in Christ: We are called to live differently because of Christ. Our old ways are gone, and we are made new.
- Faith in Difficult Times: The disciples' fear during the storm shows a lack of faith. Jesus' calming of the storm shows that faith in Him can bring peace.

These themes help us understand the readings for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time. They remind us to trust in God's power and let Christ's love transform our lives.
