meditation with each mystery. When we pray the Rosary we pray the Gospels, all of the important events around the life of Jesus.

By tradition, not that it is a requirement, different mysteries are prayed on different days. The Joyful Mysteries are prayed on Mondays and Saturdays, the Luminous Mysteries are prayed on Thursdays, the Sorrowful Mysteries are prayed on Tuesdays and Fridays and the Glorious Mysteries are prayed on Wednesdays and Sundays. Other traditions include praying the Sorrowful Mysteries every day during the season of Lent or praying the Glorious Mysteries each day of the Easter Season.

Many have adopted the Rosary as a daily prayer as we go to our mother for guidance, intercession and encouragement as we live out our lives as followers of Jesus.

Mary, Mother of God...Pray for Us!

October (and May) —The Months of Mary

It has been a long-standing tradition that the months of May and October are dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God. Since Mother's Day is in May, and Mary is our spiritual mother and the mother of the Church it is easy to understand why the Church would ask special attention be paid to Mary during that month.

The connection to Mary in the month of October is less obvious and may have started ever since 1571 when Mary's intercession was received and victory secured at the naval battle of Lepanto against the Turks on October 7th of that year. Today that special event is remembered as the feast day of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7) because the victory of the battle was won after the praying of the Rosary.

To this day the months of October and May hold a special place for Catholics, especially in the praying of the Rosary. The Rosary as we know it was developed in the Middle Ages and at heart is a Biblical prayer, which is why scripture verses are often used for Happy Deacon Sunday to Deacon Bruce and Deacon Jim !

Thank you for your commitment and dedication in all that you do.

Lord Jesus Christ, Servant of all,

Send your Spirit upon our deacons as they serve your Church.

Give them eyes to see the needs of your people.

Give them a discerning mind to know your truth.

Give them a generous spirit when they are tired but needed.

Give them a humble heart when their work goes unnoticed.

Give them peace of mind in obedience and service.

Give them health of body so they may serve with strength.

Make them fertile ground for your inspiration and love.

Comfort them when they question themselves and their ministry.

Grant them grace so they may share your wisdom.

Make their hearts like yours so they may love your people.

Amen.

World Mission Sunday

Next Week Second Collection

The Church celebrates World Mission Sunday next week and a second collection will be taken up to show our support for the work that goes on throughout the world.

The collection supports over 1,100 dioceses that cannot sustain themselves because they are too poor, young or actively persecuted.

Until 1908, the church in the United States was a mission territory. We rely on this fund to build our churches and seminaries and support our clergy and religious.

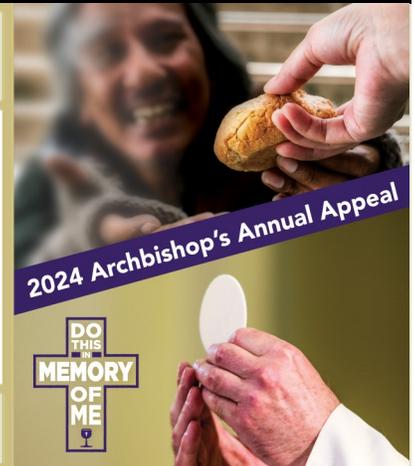

Today, many foreign missions rely on our generosity.

Please pray for the missions and be as generous as you can.
