Graciously hear our supplications, O Lord, so that we, who believe that the Savior of the human race is with you in your glory, may experience, as he promised, until the end of the world, his abiding presence among us. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

ANNUNCIATION PARISH

The Easter Season Comes to an End Next Week

As you know the Easter season lasts for fifty days and ends next weekend with the Feast of Pentecost. Ranking second only to Easter, the feast of Pentecost (from the Greek pentekoste, “fiftieth”) must be understood in the context of the Jewish feast by the same name. Its other name in Jewish tradition is Feast of Weeks, a full season of seven weeks of thanksgiving beginning with Passover Sabbath (see Tobit 2:1; 2 Maccabees 12:32).

This prolonged festival celebrated the theme of harvest and thanksgiving. It evolved before the time of Christ into a memorial of the covenant and, by 300 A.D., a memorial of the giving of the Law.

By the end of the second century, Christians were observing a similar fifty-day festival of rejoicing after the annual Easter celebration. People prayed and fasting was prohibited because of the joyful experience of the Resurrection. It seems that originally the followers of Jesus continued to observe the Jewish festival, a time of “first fruits” (see 1 Corinthians 16:8, 15:20, 23) rather than a distinctly new theme.

Pentecost itself closes out the Easter season. It celebrates the overwhelming experience of God pouring out the Holy Spirit upon the first community of those who believed Jesus was the Lord and Christ (Acts 2:1-4). Pentecost is called therefore, the birth of the Church or the birth of the Church’s mission.

The color of vestments for Pentecost is red. The color red symbolizes the intense love and fire of the Holy Spirit. Other symbols of the Pentecost event are the dove (Luke 3:21-22), the tongues of fire (Acts 2:1-4), and wind (Acts 2:2).

With the end of the Easter season the Church continues Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time is not ordinary at all but the period when there is not a season that has its own distinctive character. The Sundays of Ordinary Time are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its fullness and continue until the first Sunday of Advent, at the end of November.

A Knights of Columbus Hearty Thank You to the Parish!

Approximately 150 parishioners, family and friends attended the Palm Sunday Breakfast! Additional tables needed to be setup to accommodate the large crowd. Based on this size, we'll be sure have plenty of food for the next breakfast in the Fall! AND thanks to all who bought Palm crosses. Just over 200 crosses were sold! Fr. Bock blessed all crosses before distribution. Proceeds from these events will go towards Annunciation Parish and the Knights of Columbus.
